

Society for Disability and Rehabilitation Studies

(A social service organization established under the Societies Registration Act of 1860 and granted IT Exemption under Section 80G of IT Act by Govt. of India)

Ref. No. 149/Call Papers/NS-2019/SDRS

Date 30/03/2019

Dr G. N. Karna
Honorary President &
Member, NHRC Core Group
on Disability

Prof. P. R. Ramanujam
Honorary Executive President

Prof. G. L. Reddy
Honorary Executive President

Dr K. S. L. Das
Vice-President

Shri A. K. Karan
Secretary General

CO-ORDINATORS :

Dr P. N Labh

Dr Ashok K. Tyagi

ADVISORY BOARD :

Shri Kuldip Nayar
(Ex-MP, Rajya Sabha)

Prof. Michael Stein
(Harvard Law School
Project on Disability,
Cambridge, MA, USA)

Prof. P. K. Dave
(Chairman, Rockland Hospital
& Ex-Director, AIIMS,
New Delhi)

Prof. Bimal Prasad
(Retd. Professor, JNU & India's Ex-Ambassador to Nepal)

Prof. Gautam Gawali
(Univ. of Bombay, Mumbai)

Prof. David J. Connor
(City Univ. of New York, USA)

Prof. S. K. Guha
(IIT, Kharagpur)

Shri Sanjay Parikh
(Sr. Advocate, Supreme Court of India, New Delhi)

Dr S. D. Kulkarni
(APPD, CIAE, Bhopal)

Dr Philip Scullion
(Coventry Univ. UK)

Prof. A. K. Sen
(Retd. Prof., DU, Delhi)

Prof. Harikesh Singh
(BHU, Varanasi)

INVITATION CALL FOR PAPERS

NATIONAL SEMINAR ON

"ROLE OF YOUNG AND ADOLESCENT GIRLS WITH DISABILITIES IN NATIONAL INTEGRATION OF INDIA"

Respected Sir/ Madam,

The Society for Disability and Rehabilitation Studies—SDRS (New Delhi), in collaboration with JNU's Human Rights and Disability Studies Programmes, is organizing a National Seminar on "Role of Young and Adolescent Girls with Disabilities in National Integration of India" at Committee Room (3rd Floor), SIS, JNU, New Delhi on 20th & 21st June 2019 (Thursday & Friday) with the basic with the basic objective of generating awareness about the potential role of young and adolescent girl with disabilities in the developmental agenda as also the national integration process, especially in the aftermath of ratification of CRPD and enactment of the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act (2016) by the Government of India. Apart from an Edited Volume, a thematic Souvenir will also be released on the occasion.

Considering your expertise and commitment in the area, we are inviting you to be a Resource Person/ Paper Presenter for this National Seminar. Travelling expenses by Economy Class (Airfare), 3rd AC by Rajdhani Express journey (both ways) will be reimbursed to the outstation resource persons/ paper presenters, apart from accommodation, hospitality and local conveyance (to be provided by the organizer). However, reimbursement of travelling expenses would not be considered in cases, where there may be scope for the same being borne out by the affiliate government organization/ institution.

Hence, the SDRS appeals you to kindly submit your full paper (as attachments in document format by email at: sdrs98@gmail.com or drgnkarna@gmail.com) latest by 25th May 2019. The Abstract of paper presentation (in 250 - 300 words) may be submitted in advance by 30th April 2019 so as to help us finalize the Tentative Programme Schedule accordingly. The paper should normally be (but not restricted to) on any aspects of sub-themes, as identified in the Concept Note of the National Seminar. An early and positive response will be highly appreciated.

Look forward to getting your kind support for this venture.

With warmest personal regards,

Yours sincerely

G. N. Karna, PhD (JNU)
Honorary President, SDRS &
Convenor, National Seminar
Mob.: 9810161358

Encl. : Concept Note